CleanRite Cleaning Services Inc. team participate in 12 Days of Christmas Giving

By Jaime Ellison
Staff Writer

WALKERTON — The CleanRite Cleaning Services Inc. team participated in the 12 Days of Christmas Giving this holiday season. Owner Dawn M. Gerby-Verhagbe inspired her team to bless others this year with an outreach. They were provided with $200 each to donate to an organization or split between two they were required to write why the recipient was chosen.

Linda Baker-Houin and Debra Leake chose Bikers Against Predators and Ronald McDonald House for Day One and Day Two.

Houin and Leake's letter to Bikers Against Predators stated, "We would like to donate $100 to Bikers Against Predators (BAP). We chose this non-profit organization because they expose predators and save our children, which is something we are thankful for. They work hard to expose the people who want to hurt children and do not get paid for the work it takes to do it. They do things in a legal way so they can

Santa Claus spends time with a kid at The Bourbon Public Library

Santa visits the Bourbon Public Library

By Gloria Greer
Staff Writer

BOURBON — On Wednesday Santa Claus visited the Bourbon Public Library to talk to spend time with kids, give them a present and wish them happy holidays.

Santa has found the BPL for two years now. He comes to the library during their Kids Quest time. This is a time where kids ages K to 3rd grade come to the library to do fun activities.

Kids were encouraged to bring their letters to Santa so that he could take them back to the North Pole with him.
